

Partnership Mission Statement

Pacheco Elementary School and Bridgewater State University, together with community partners, such as New Bedford Housing Authority, are committed to providing high-quality instruction to both public school and university students that engages all learners and is grounded in research-based best practices. Our partnership is collaborative, mutually beneficial and extends beyond students to include families and faculty. As a community we will learn together, so we can succeed forever.